Stockholm, June 11, O. S.

ON the 9th Inſtant the Lord Carteret, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour, had his Audience of Leave of the King and Queen of Sweden at Carlberg, where his Excellency had the Honour to dine the ſame Day with their Majeſties: That Afternoon the King with the Prince his Brother ſet out from thence to take the Diverſion of Bear-Hunting near Upſala, whence it is thought his Majeſty will go on to Gaſle to view the Body of Troops incamped in that Neighbourhood under the Command of General Hamilton. On the 4th Inſtant the King ſent a Letter to the States, wherein he acquainted them, that conſidering it is uncertain when a Peace can be made with their Enemies, and that it may perhaps in the mean while be neceſſary to form an Army abroad, in order to obtain Terms more honourable than have yet been offered; and ſeeing by the Inſtrument of Government he has obliged himſelf not to go out of the Kingdom without the Conſent of the States; and as it was likely they would ſoon finiſh what they think neceſſary to do in this Seſſion; he therefore deſired to know whether the States would not before they ſeparate leave him at Liberty to go and command any Army that may be formed abroad for the forementioned Purpoſe, in caſe his Majeſty and the Senate of the Kingdom judge it to be for the publick Good. The Reſolution of the States hereupon is expected. We have Advices from the Province of Wetter-Bothnia, that the Muſcovites are gone from Uma, but whether they be retired over to Finland or gone higher up the Gulph is yet uncertain.

Hague, July 5, N. S. On the 2d Inſtant in the Evening the Earl Stanhope went from hence in a Yacht for Utrecht, and the next Day proceeded from thence on his Journey to Hanover.

Whitehall, July 1.
